A report was recently circulated to the effect that Miss Alberta Gallatin, the actress, who is starring this season in Ibsen' "Ghosts," had been "turned down" when she applied for admission as an honorary member of the Norfolk, Va., Chapter of the Daughters of the Con-Chapier of the Daughters of the Confederacy. This report has been investigated, and has been found to be entirely without foundation. It appears that the Norfolk Chapter previous to Miss Gallatin's application had decided that the roll of honorary membership should be entirely aboutshed. There was nothing in this action, however, that reflected on the actress. On the contrary a prominent member of the Norfolk Chapter, Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, wired Miss Gallatin that she would be welcomed as an active member in any chapter in the South, and, furthermore, that Miss Gallatin's godmother, who is no less a pursonage than Mrs. Jefferson Davis, wife of the President of the Confederacy, would be willing to act as sponsor for acr yould be willing to act as sponsor for ac

There is perhaps no woman of southern lineage who is more entitled to membership in the Daughters of the Confederacy than M as Gallatin, Inasmuch as she is a daughter of Brigadler-General Albert Gallatin Jenkins, who lost his life for the southern cause. Nicknames never yet hurt a healthy man.

An Ohlo lady tells a good food story.

"Once, years ago, my sister, at that time a woman of thirty-five, became so ill from nervous exhaustion that for two years her life was despaired of. She had suffered from dyspeps a since a girl, and the nervous trouble of course aggravated that, until it became impossible for her to ent or take nourishment of any kind without intense suffering.

that, until it became impossible for her to eat or take nourishment of any kind without intense suffering.

"Like all persons affected with nervous diseases, she also suffered from insonna, and it was nothing unusual for her to aleep only three hours out of twenty-four. All the years she had been a miserable invalid her diet consisted almost entirely of milk and eggs. Finally Grape-Nuscame upon the market, and she tried the food for breakfast, four teaspoonfuls in a pint of hot milk, and the change in her condition was perfectly marvelous.

"She improved at once, and her face has now grown round and fat, as I remembered it in girthood, and the increase in flesh has extended all over. She never was weighed while an invalid, so we cannot say just how much she has gained, but it is wonderful. She now sleeps the whole night through, and all the miserable weakheess and aches in head and neck are gone. She is again well and strong and happy, when it looked as though she would never have any happiness on this earth-again. All her nelshors look upon her recovery as a miracie.

From all the reports it would appear that Miss Gertrude Coghian has scored a tremendous triumph in her new play. "The Sword of Justice." This is a matter of congratulation to her many friends and admirers here, and, in fact, everywhere—admirers who, two or three years ago, predicted her future. It has been said that Miss Coghian took up her art where her father laid it down. This is, of course, an evtravagant expression of praise, but it does look as though she was maintaining the Coghian stage standard remarkably well.

Her advancement in public esteem and the development of her stagecraft have been unusual.

Part of the time was spent with Mrs.
Stokes' sister, who, since her marriage, has lived abroad, having an ideal home near London. She is remembered by friends who knew her as a young lady in Richmond as the charming Miss Nannie Gwatkin.

general foreman of the Richmond Works of the American Locomotive Company, has been promoted to superintendent of the works, vice Mr. F. A. Haughton, who has been transferred to the Schenectady Works.

Mr. Troxler has been employed with the Richmond Works for the last fifteen years, and the news of his deserved promotion will be read with pleasure by his numerous friends.

DAILY FASHION HINTS. GIRL'S SCHOOL COAT.

may be worn with or without either cape or cape and stole. This makes the pattern more desirable, for if there are two little girls in the family, one might have a coat made with just the shoulder cape alone, and the other might be just the collar and stole, w thout the cape. The only trimming necessary is the machine stitching, which always gives a pretty finish. The sleeve is the regular coat sleeve. One might easily make this little coat from an old discarded overcoat or serge skirt. Almost every woman has an old walking skirt of good material that would answer very nicely for material for a jacket.

Lady's cloth, serge, cheviot, silk or velvet could be used in the construction, and if additional trimming is desired, wear a lace collar, or trim the corners of the collar and ends of the stole with little lace medallions.
